Destiny Palmistry 2 Sari Puhakka, 2018-04-16 All the lines on your palm and what they mean. The first book in this series, 'Destiny Palmistry - Character Awareness, ' I talked about the fundamental basics of the hand, thumb, and fingers as well as the mounts and nails. Beginning with these essentials, it gives us the foundation for performing a good palm reading. These conclusions, used in conjunction with the lines, prepare for a better understanding of their significance. I created this book for those of you who are interested in palmistry as a beginner and for those who believe there is some truth in respect to the psychoanalysis, as well as predictive aspects of reading hands. I have for this purpose included many traditional meanings as well as modern views based on my experience

The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinodhan Naidoo, 2018-08-24 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. All over the world, economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse. A well-performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development - but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult. Access to education has increased, but quality remains low, with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation. The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education. Using the vivid example of South Africa, a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy, it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes. By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals, it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process, combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re-orient the system towards learning.

Sustainable Dwelling Gérald Ledent, Chloé Salembier, Damien Vanneste, 2020-01-23 This book examines the social and spatial dimensions of dwelling from the perspective of sustainability. This publication avoids the traditional energy and technological dimensions of sustainability to position the notion of sustainable dwelling at the crossroads of spatial polyvalence and residents' empowerment. In the field of housing, this publication identifies the recurrent properties of 'sustainable space' and the variety of the socio-cultural practices that can embody them. Its purpose is to comprehend how the concept of sustainability is reflected in housing spaces as well as to analyse how inhabitants put those spaces to the test.

A House Divided Crispian Olver, 2019-10-10 It's 2018 and Cape Town is racked by its worst drought on record. The prospect of 'Day Zero' - when the taps will run dry - is driving citizens into a frenzy. Then the ruling Democratic Alliance removes control of the water issue from Mayor Patricia de Lille. While politicians turn on each other, revealing deep-lying faultlines and new enmities, critical questions arise: what lies behind the fallout, and what, if any, deeper interests are at play? Against this fraught backdrop, author and academic Crispian Olver resolves to explore how the city of his childhood is run, and he sets his sights in particular on the web of connections between local politicians and property developers. Interviewing numerous people - including many dropped from the City administration in questionable circumstances - he uncovers a Pandora's box of backstabbing, infighting and backroom deals. Olver explores contentious property developments in agriculturally sensitive Philippi, on the scenic West Coast and along the glorious - and lucrative - Atlantic Seaboard, delves into attempts to 'hijack' civic associations and exposes the close yet precarious relationship between the mayor and City Hall's 'laptop boys'. In blistering detail he gets to grips with the political meltdown within the DA and the defection of De Lille to form her own party.

We are Living on a Star Tone Hansen, Marit Paasche, 2014 We are living on a star takes its title from a tapestry by Hannah Ryggen that hung in the government building known as 'the High-rise' until July 22, 2011. The explosion that took place that day left the tapestry with a gash in the lower portion. The artists and writers participating in We Are Living on a Star contend with a range of issues relating to history, contemporaneity, normality, and expression. The result is an open and inquiring look at our own time.

When She Dares Jessie Clever, 2019-06-11 She needs him, and he needs her but love has nothing to do with it. Or so they say. Known as Saint Emily around her small, lakeside hometown in Rhode Island, Emily Airedale has always been the quiet, well-respected elementary school teacher until the chance to help start a premier charter school is too good to pass up. She leaves the security of her job only to discover the school has lost its funding. Knowing only one person with the kind of funds needed to start a charter school, Emily must go to the one man who could ever break her heart. But as luck would have it, he needs something from her, too. When Harry Carter's father lays down an ultimatum, marry or risk losing the family marina business, Harry turns to the one that got away - Emily Airedale. The two must strike a bargain to save both of the futures they have always dreamed of, but when their bargain becomes more than either expected, can they dare to hope for a second chance at love?
